HARLEM RACING.

Harlem's fourth two weeks' meeting closed Saturday with a hurrah, and now the racing scene will shift to Hawthorne. That Harlem's fortnight has been successful is beyond a doubt Secretary Nathanson exerted himself to give the public high-class racing, and as the weather has been perfect for outdoor sports, although a trifle hot, the crowds have naturally been far above the average. Of course, the closing of racing at St. Louis and the resultant accession of many new horses was largely accountable for this, and it is safe to say that the average daily attendance has been over 3,000.

The racing has been extremely clean and above reproach and Judge Hamilton has done everything in his power to have it so. He landed jockey Jess Everett and the racing goes on just as well without him and perhaps is a trifle healthier.

Six cracking good races with extremely evenly balanced fields drew about 8,000 people to the track Saturday.

The racing feature was a condition affair at one mile and a sixteenth and although only four started they were so evenly balanced that it was almost impossible for the talent to choose between three of them. The consequence was that at post time it was about 9 to 5 and take your pick between Carnero, Rafaello and Jolly Roger. The race was strictly between this trio. Carnero went to the front im-mediately after the fall of the flag and after leading all the way won rather easily at the end from Rafaello. The latter colt looked very dangerous at one time at the head of the stretch where he put Carnero to a drive, but Murphy's big horse had something left and cleverly shook him off below the eighth post.

Tommy Burns always seems to ride better when there is a big crowd on hand. He had one of his lucky spells and by ciever ricing managed to land four winners. His most pop-ular victory was on May Beach in the third race. This was at three-quarters of a mile, and a field of good ones started. May Beach was always about 3 to 1 and Buras' followers backed her heavily both ways. The filly was at her best and won all the way. Burns got her away flying and stepping the first five furlongs in 1:00 flat she had the others beaten and had only to loaf at the end. After the race, when Burns returned to the scales he was given a royal reception. Kensington was second and

The Schorrs certainly have a corking good colt in Sam Phillips. This colt is by St. Florian -Reckon and looks every inch the grand youngster that he is. He is one of the sort that likes to race from behind and is partial to a route. In the second event, which was at one mile, for two-year-olds, he made Sam Fullen and Florizar look cheap. He loafed in behind them to the head of the stretch and then galloped over them as though they were tied. At the finish he was eased up and the mile was run in 1:40%, which was a grand performance for any two-year-old.

There was only one close finish and that came out of the last race which was at a mile and a quarter. Little Singer, a long shot, barely lasted long enough to stagger home a nose in front of Mary Kinsella. The latter was the same distance in front of Croesus.

The first race was an easy thing for Blue Lick, who came to life with a start, and Tulla Fonso at 9 to 5 cleverly won the fifth. She was ridden by Burns who handled her to perfection, Other-

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A seven days' race meeting is to be held at Toronto, Canada, September 23 to 30, under the anspices of the Country and Hunt Club of Toronto (Limited). The following are the stake to be decided: Great Canadian Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, 1 1.4 miles; Imperial Plate Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, 1 1.8 miles; Autumn Handicap, for twoyear-olds, 3-4 mile; Grand International Steeple chase, about 2 1-2 miles; Canadian Hunt Cup, handicap steeplechase, for Canadian qualified hunters, about 2 1-2 miles; D'Alton McCarthy Memorial Plate, hunters' flat handicap, 1 1-2 miles, and Military Cup, 1 1-2 miles.

The very successful, in some respects sense tional, two weeks' meeting at Harlem ended Saturday with a good card and capital racing Hawthorne will now enter on a similar term of which the principal feature will no doubt be the four mile dash next Saturday. Monday being Labor Day a huge crowd is expected at Hawthorne and for the better accommodation of those who will throng to this popular course arrangements have been made with the Illinois Central, Burlington and Metropolitan elevated roads to run extra trains to the track begin ning at 12:50 p. m. A full course steeplechase and a dash of a mile and a half will be among the attractions of the day. With fine racing weather, abundance of good horses, a great increase in the number of capable riders and well arranged programs, there is every rea to expect a continuation of the remarkably prosperous local turf season

Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily at the end; second the same; third and fourth were doing their best. Blue Lick ran a much better race than he did Friday. Jim McCleevy seemed to have everything his own way at the head of the stretch, but when pinched he quit badly. Jimp was slow to got going and was interfered with several times. When he got clear sailing in the stretch, he finished strong. Schanken ran a fair race. The Bondman had no chance after being badly interfered with on the first turn. Throw his race out. Duty showed Winner—Ch. c, by St. Florian—Reckon.

Post 13 minutes. Start fair. Won pulled up; second and third doing their best. Sam Phillips came from behind like a good horse and ran a grand race. He is perhaps the best colt over a distance of ground that has shown here this season. There was simply nothing to the race after Sam Phillips bumped his way through in the stretch. Sam Fullen was running under a choking pull in front all the way but when Beauchamp let him down in the stretch the colt had nothing left to respond with Florizar ran a good race. He was bumped and interfered with by Sam Phillips when the latter come through in the stretch. The first three far outclassed the others and always had the race between themselves.

Scratched—14286 Clara Wooley, 99; 143162 Thrive, 108; 14333 Mont Eagle, 99.

Overweights—Florizar, 3† pounds.

Winner—Ch. f, by Bobby Beach Faithless.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden. Third and fourth driving hard. May Beach had surprising speed. She raced the others dizzy in the first five-eighths and then loafed the rest of the way. See was a speed marvel today. Kensington ran much better than she did when last out. Mark Algareta. She was right there and fighting for the miney all the way. Headwater was badly inverfered with at the start. So was Canace. Both finished strongly. Throw Harry Dake's race out. The ride on him was very inefficient.

Off at the first break to a good start Won easily at the end after an early drive; second driven out. Carnero was skillfully rated in front and ran one of his best races. He had a lot of weight off from his last race and the performance was about to his nitch. Rafaello made a strong bid at the head of the stretch and put Carnero to a drive, but hung himself in the final farlong. Jolly Roger was never dangerous. Kunja was outclassed. Winner—B. f. by Fonso—Tulla Blackburn.

Off at the second break to a fair start. Won in a hand drive and out to the last ounce; second and third driving to the limit. Tulla Fonso got a flying start and had the most speed of the rarty. She was tiring badly at the end, but Burns nursed her into staying long enough to win. Moroni ran a cracking good race. Had he been able to get through at the head of the stretch on the inside he would probably have won. As it was when Mitcheil started through Bassinger, with Harry Thoburn, sharply shut him off. The boy was then compelled to pull up and go around Harry Thoburn. After this he outgamed the latter and got second place hancily. The race was always between the first three. Kisme's performance was a bad one. Throw it out. The same spiles to Dog Town.

Foratched—1438 McAlb rt, 99.

Overweights—King's Highway, 21 pounds.

Tulla Fonso place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Moroni, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Harry Thoburn, show, evens.

Winner—Br. m, by Burgomaster—Maggie B.

Off at the first break te a good start. Won in a terrific drive of four. Little Singer barely staggered home Mitchell rode a clever race on her. He stole a match on the others on the far turn and got so far away that the others could not catch her. Mary Kinsella ran a fine race and finished strongly. The finish on Croesus was weak. He was best and should have won. Jackanapes seems to be of no present account. Celtic Bard stopped in a stride on the far turn. Ecratched—14292 Ray H., 100; 13840 Jack Martin, 100.
